

Patrizia Mariella BOVE SEVILLA

Surgeon from the Autonomous University of Guadalajara UAG and Specialty in Dermatology from the University of Guadalajara, graduated from the Dermatological Institute of Jalisco "Dr. José Barba Rubio" and visiting physician in the department of Dermatology at the Cleveland Clinic, Florida's Branch.

Founder and Director of the DERMES Specialized Dermatology Center in private practice in the city of Guadalajara, Mexico; for 26 years, currently President of the College of Dermatologists of Jalisco, former treasurer of the same in 2001 and Coordinator of the Department of Dermatology of the Puerta de Hierro Hospital, north, in the same city.

Member of national and international dermatological societies.

She has published medical articles and has co-authored some books. Particular interest in dermato oncology and skin surgery, photobiology as well as acne of women with gynecological-endocrine disorders, medical mycology and the application of botulinum toxin for medical and cosmetic application for 28 years.

She has participated as a speaker in numerous national and foreign congresses during the last 30 years.