

Francisco Gerardo BRAVO PUCCIO

I am currently 67 years-old, a citizen and resident of Peru.

I am a Peruvian dermatologist and dermatopathologist with 34 years of practice in academics as well as in private practice.

I did my medical school at Universidad Peruana Cayetano Heredia and later went to the US to get formal training in internal medicine, dermatology and dermatopathology.

I am Board Certified in Internal Medicine, Dermatology, and Dermatopathology.

I am Associated Professor of Dermatology and Pathology at Universidad Peruana Cayetano Heredia and continue to attend the hospital service as a consultant.

My main interest are infectious diseases, tropical dermatology, and dermatopathology of infections.

I continue to teach at my University and also as part of the faculty of the Gorgas Course in Tropical Medicine
